

Tour 5 NTU Centre for Contemporary Art Singapore

These docent-led tours by Friends of the Museum will uncover Gillman Barracks' rich history and introduce its galleries and include a visit to NTU CCA Singapore.

NTU CCA Singapore Exhibitions is focused on contemporary artistic production that provides a critical platform for reflection and discussion. The exhibition programme embraces artistic production in all its diverse media with a commitment to current debates in visual culture. NTU CCA Singapore presents up to four exhibitions a year ranging in format from group to solo shows giving voice to a diversity of international artists. Each exhibition is accompanied by an extensive public programme of tours, talks and workshops that foster reflections on the exhibition from various perspectives and disciplines.
